Senate Resolution 46

Senator Word offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Senate of the 61st Legislature, 1st Called Session, is highly honored today, August 11, 1969, to have as distinguished guests a group of 35 outstanding young people from West Germany; and

Whereas, These German youths are sponsored by the Lions International Youth Exchange Program: The basic philosophy behind this program being the assumption that the attainment of any degree of world peace may well be dependent upon first attaining better world understanding at the "people to people" level through our youth; and

Whereas, Individual Lions Clubs arrange for the exchange of youths (ages 17 through 22) who would visit the foreign country of their choice, stay in homes of Lions as a member of the family and, after four to six weeks of such vacation experience, return to their home country with a personal understanding which may have an impact upon their individual thinking all the rest of their lives; and

Whereas, The following students who are accompanied by their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bushong and Mr. and Mrs. Surry Shaffer, are in the Capitol today:

Wolfgang Biedermann,
 Stephan Brühl,
 Heinz Block,
 Hans Ulrich Buckenberger,

On motion of Senator Brooks, and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator Word, and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted.

By unanimous consent, Senator Word presented the distinguished guests to the Members of the Senate. The Members of the Senate acknowledged the presence of the group with a standing ovation.

Resolutions Signed

The President signed in the presence of the Senate after the caption had been read, the following enrolled resolutions:

S. C. R. No. 9—Memorial resolution for Ike F. Genzer.

S. C. R. No. 10—Paying tribute to Jose Francisco Ruiz and providing for appropriate ceremonies in observance of his birthday.

S. C. R. No. 11—Providing for the hanging in the State Capitol of an official portrait of Vernie C. Marshall.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 12

Senator Herring offered the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 12—Expressing best wishes to William J. Burke on his retirement as Executive Director of the Texas Board of Control.

Whereas, August 31, 1969, will mark the retirement of William J. Burke who since December 17, 1956, has served with unusual ability and distinction as Executive Director of the Texas State Board of Control; and

Whereas, After ten years as Purchasing Agent for the City of Corpus Christi, William Burke came to the Board of Control to assume the task of reorganization and administration of that ever-expanding agency; and

Whereas, Although during his tenure as Executive Director the annual purchasing volume of the Board of Control has more than doubled from less than 70 million dollars in 1956 to the present level of approximately one hundred fifty million, he has been able to provide the leadership to shape the Board into the efficient, well coordinated organization that it is today; and

Whereas, As retiring President of the National Institute of Governmental Purchasing, Inc., one of the many purchasing organizations in which he has been an active member, William Burke was a delegate in 1968 to the meeting of the Institute of Purchasing and Supply of Great Britain; and

Whereas, It is most appropriate that the Legislature recognize the outstanding efforts of William J. Burke during his years of service to the State of Texas; now, therefore, be it

Resolved that the Senate of the 61st Legislature, 1st Called Session, the House of Representatives concurring, Join with all the citizens of Texas in expressing its gratitude to William J. Burke; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature extend to him its continuing good wishes upon his retirement from public service, and that a copy of this Resolution be prepared for presentation to William J. Burke.

HERRING

Signed—Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes; Aikin, Bates, Bernal, Berry, Blanchard, Bridges, Brooks, Christie, Cole, Connally, Creighton, Grover, Hall, Harrington, Harris, Hazlewood, Hightower, Jordan, Kennard, Mauzy, McKool, Moore, Patman, Ratliff, Schwartz, Snelson, Strong, Watson, Wilson, Word.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 13

Senator Bernal offered the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 13—Extending highest commendation to His Excellency, Archbishop Francis J. Furey, on the occasion of his installation as Archbishop of the San Antonio Archdiocese.

Whereas, The City of San Antonio extended a gracious and inspiring welcome to His Excellency, Archbishop Francis J. Furey, who on August 6, 1969, became the third archbishop in the archdiocese's history; and

Whereas, Archbishop Furey is replacing Archbishop Robert E. Lucey, who is retiring after rendering many years of distinguished service to the San Antonio Archdiocese; and

Whereas, During his service to the archdiocese, Archbishop Lucey contributed immensely to the welfare of his people and his concern for the poor; his support of education and his promotion of equality and justice for all citizens earned him admiration and praise throughout the world; and

Whereas, Archbishop Furey, who was previously the Bishop of San Diego, California, was installed Wednesday in impressive and moving ceremonies. The Pope's official representative in the United States, Archbishop Luigi Raimondi, was the principal celebrant in the stirring Mass of the Transfiguration; and

Whereas, The incoming Archbishop is a native of Pennsylvania and is a graduate of St. Charles Seminary in Overbrook, Pennsylvania; he completed his priestly studies at the Pontifical Roman Seminary in Rome; and

Whereas, He began his distinguished church career in the Philadelphia Archdiocese and in 1936 was appointed president of Immaculata College, a position he held for the next 10 years. He later became rector of St. Charles Seminary, and, in addition, served as vice-chairman of the board of trustees and on the faculty; and

Whereas, In 1958 he was appointed pastor of St. Helena's Parish in Philadelphia, and in 1960 he was consecrated a bishop and became auxiliary to the Cardinal of Philadelphia. He became coadjutor bishop in the San Diego Diocese in July, 1963, and became Bishop of the Southern California See on March 6, 1966; and

Whereas, This devoted churchman is a leader in numerous important and prestigious organizations and committees within the Catholic Church, particularly those dealing with education and welfare. He is an energetic promoter of civic causes; in San Diego he was a leader in the United Fund and a founder of the Urban Coalition; and

Whereas, Archbishop Furey is an outstanding scholar: he has received doctorates in philosophy and sacred theology; he holds a master of arts degree; and he has been presented with honorary doctors of law degrees from several Catholic institutions of higher learning; and

Whereas, Archbishop Furey is admired and respected for his openness of spirit, his love of his fellowman, and his great desire to implement the work of his church through the people he serves; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the 61st Legislature, 1st Called Session, the House of Representatives concurring, That the Legislature of the State of Texas extend highest commendations to His Excellency, Archbishop Francis J. Furey, and extend to him sincerest wishes for many years of distinguished service to the people of his archdiocese; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared and presented to His Excellency, Archbishop Francis J. Furey, as an expression of highest regard and esteem from the Legislature of the State of Texas.
